SPECIAL SESSION on the ACTIVITIES of OGASH

WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

The organizing committee of the twelfth annual international congress of obstetrics and gynecology is delighted to invite you for attendance and participation on the 30th and 31st of May 2007 at the J. W. Marriott Mirage Hotel. The congress remains an annual popular venue for all obstetricians and gynecologists in Egypt.

The main target is to serve women toward a happy prosperous and healthy life. The conference will provide a forum for exchange of most recent generated scientific information and experience in the specialty of obstetrics and gynecology and in many related topics.

This annual congress remains an outstanding educational opportunity and an excellent contribution to our field. The scientific program is well underway. The congress is of considerable interest for the clinicians, postgraduate students, and for all senior staff to exchange experience and information. The weather at that time is marvelous in Cairo, and that helps in preparing for the social activities which are an opportunity for recreation and stimulation after the scientific sessions.
