

Prof Ferdinando Brunori Memorial Celebration

Promoter of HLA-DR studies on Etyopathogenesis of EPH Gestosis

Prof Ferdinando Brunori was a very distinguished Medical Doctor, mastered in Internal Medicine. He was very engaged in medical-social employments and He totally devoted his Life to his Family, his Patients and to Charities. His CV included the following Responsibilities:

- Past President of Italian Red Cross in Pisa
- Past Director of Red Cross "First Aid Department" at the "Galileo Galilei " in Pisa.
- Past Director at "Emergency Department" of S. Chiara University-Hospital-Pisa
- Past President of Lion's Club in Pisa.
- Awarded by the President of Italian Republic, C.A. Ciampi, as Commendator of the Italian Republic.
- Entitled with " Le Muse Award " at the Town Hall in Pisa, for his devotion and active contribution to every kind of Voluntary Service towards Culture and Sports, Homeless People, Handicap Carriers and pro-Life Centers.

He was the first to believe to the importance of HLA_DR in the pathogenesis of Gestosis and encouraged her dilected Wife Irma de Luca and her discipule Lorella Battini , to go on in their scientific studies till to the results that OGASH have so honourably recognized and awarded.